Contribution limits

Federal elections have lower contribution limits than state elections in North Carolina. For individuals contributing to a candidate committee, the limit is $3,500 per election.

The Federal Election Commission considers primary elections and general elections separate for the purposes of these limits, so be sure to designate it properly above.

Be sure to mind these contribution limits when making donations. The campaign keeps a ledger of all donations and will not process donations that put you over these limits.
